Science

The Hydrology Unit assessment will be administered on Tuesday, Feb. 7th. The assessment will cover both fresh water and salt water content. Study guides for the test have been distributed in class; students should have this in their binders...remember, possession of a study guide is just the first step in preparing for the test!! STUDY! The 'Planet Water' booklets we have been working on in class were due Friday, Feb. 3; incomplete work become homework as of Friday afternoon. We will begin working on our weather and climate unit on Wednesday, Feb. 8 with a new set of vocabulary terms. Make sure you are checking our Weebly pages for additional resources.
