Social Studies

Social Studies classes are continuing their unit on the history of Latin America. This week students will examine the Aztec, Inca, Colombian Exchange and independent movements throughout Latin America. Students should continue studying their map as they need to know the locations of countries and physical features throughout the quarter.

Science

We will be moving on with our hydrology studies this coming week, having dived in to standards related to the Earth's oceans. In addition to other classroom tasks, students will also be putting their finishing touches on their 'Planet Water' booklets; this booklet will be assessed as a test grade. Our next vocabulary quiz is scheduled for this coming Thursday, Feb. 2; this is the second and final hydrology vocabulary list. Look on our Weebly pages for links to vocabulary study and other resources. ***Heads-Up: our Hydrology unit summative assessment will be administered on TUESDAY, Feb. 7th.
