

VOCABULARY 9

HATCHET CH 5-19

1. amphibious- able to live both on land and in water
2. pulverize- grind to powder or dust
3. gingerly- with extreme care or caution
4. dormant- without activity, inactive
5. sulfur- a light yellow nonmetallic element that burns easily, producing a stifling odor
6. incessant- never stopping, continual
7. capacity- largest amount that can be held by a container
8. epilogue- a concluding part added to a novel, poem, etc.
9. auxiliary verb- also called a “helping verb” works with a main verb to express action or a state of being
- 10 verb phrase- a verb that consists of more than one word